CONSERVATION TIP - Don't throw away those plastic milk jugs. They make excellent covers to protect young plants. Cut out the bottom and a few small holes in the sides and remove cap. Anchor jug in the ground by working a little soil around the bottom. You can leave the container over the plant until all frost danger is past.

ON APRIL 28th AND 29th MORE THAN 200 COMPANIES MAY LOSE THE RIGHT TO KEEP THEIR CUSTOMERS INFORMED!

When the State Corporation Commission of Virginia holds its hearings on April 28 and 29...some 23 telephone companies, 30 sewer companies, 16 gas companies, 8 electric companies and 15 electric co-operatives may be affected by the ultimate decision. Whether or not these companies will have the right to advertise will be the ultimate outcome of the hearings. When advertising expenses represent only a minute portion of any utility's operations, do you think it fair for the SCC to decide to keep YOU—the customer—ignorant of company policies and innovations that can be made known to you through advertising? If it is decided that utility advertising should cease, then how—for example—will utilities be able to inform you of the following:

- What times are most economical for long distance phone calls?
- How can water companies help you conserve water?
- How can you get maximum efficiency from your gas furnace?

Is this FAIR? Is this FAIR to YOU—as a consumer? Restricting a company's right to advertise is tantamount to restricting their freedom of the press. If you—as a consumer—do not want to lose the right to know—through advertising—vote now to keep the privilege of public utility advertising. Don't let the SCC become a Super Board of Directors for every utility company in the state of Virginia. Vote now!

PLEASE MAIL TO VIRGINIA PRESS ASSOCIATION 1 N. Fifth Street, Richmond, Va. 23219

I feel I have the right to know—through advertising
